

College Scholars Program

UCSC's Honors Program

The College Scholars Program offers a congenial and stimulating academic home for a select group of well-prepared students at UC Santa Cruz. Through this honors program, students can expect to challenge themselves academically, find other students who are similarly motivated, and explore undergraduate research. This enriched program of study includes special courses, seminars, colloquia, and other events during the academic year

2019–2020

Quarter	Fall Start By invitation only	Spring Start Apply in Winter 2020
Fall 2019	Supplement to College Core Course	N/A
Winter 2020	Service Learning Course (COWL 168) – 2 credits	Apply for Spring Start at: honors.ucsc.edu
Spring 2020	Faculty Research Colloquium (COWL 89) – 2 credits Instructors: Faculty Director and guest faculty Introduction to UCSC as a research university, our notable researchers, and their work. Weekly discussions with faculty from a variety of disciplines Faculty Research Colloquium Dinner Following one of the weekly class meetings, students will attend a dinner at a Provost's House with the guest faculty in attendance for continued conversation and discussion
Fall 2020	GE-Satisfying Seminar – 5 credits Past seminar topics: Extreme Virology; Business Entrepreneurship: Discovering and Launching a Startup; The Nuclear Pacific; Computational Futurology; Theory and Practice of Field Studies

Contact us: (831) 459-5386 for Don Bard | (831) 459-2719 for Hayden Ryan
 ur_hnrs@ucsc.edu | honors.ucsc.edu